

Band 9 Listening Assignment 1A

Name (given & last) _____

Print the information on the right

Band Folder Number _____

Mark _____

Date _____

Listening Assignment 1A Due _____

Purpose: To find recordings which will contribute to the development of good tone, intonation and musicianship.
Procedure: Select a recording by a soloist or a small ensemble performing serious music on the same instrument you play. Recordings can be borrowed without charge from the Saskatoon Public Library. Complete and submit the information required on this sheet. FOLLOW DIRECTIONS CAREFULLY. Select a recording that you will want to use for Assignment 1B. NOTE: Local musicians have co-operated to prepare special recordings for flute and trumpet. Dubs of these recordings will be made for students who request them and who bring a good quality C90 cassette. You can use those recordings for this assignment.

Name of the recording _____ Record number (look along the edge or at the back)

Company that produced the CD _____

Name of performer(s) _____

Library call number (if any) _____

The name of the publication which lists all current classical and jazz recordings is:

a) The name of the downtown library is _____ .

b) Write the street address of the downtown library _____

c) Where in that library is the Fine and Performing Arts department located?
_____ .

c) What is the category number for band recordings? _____. Usually the call number consists of three lines. On the first line of a CD are the letters CD. The second line consists of a number. The first four digits of that number (xxx.x) indicate the category. That's the number to write on the line above. The third line consists of a set of letters representing the performer.

d) How can one find a recording such as required by this assignment in the Fine and Performing Arts department of the main library.

e) In the Fine and Performing Arts department of the main library the lowest number written on the shelves of the CD collection is _____ and the highest is _____

f) Write the name and address of one retail outlet that sells band and band instrument recordings.
